

PRICES & CHARGES

Does the cost of a funeral worry you?

Whenever you look to compare prices for funerals, you should ensure that you are comparing like for like, in other words apples with apples.

That's because there are five parts to the overall cost of a funeral; the funeral director's service charges, the coffin, the 'on the day' charges, additional items AND those of third parties such as the doctors, a celebrant or minister of religion as well as the crematorium, church or cemetery.

The CMA's initiative has helped in this regard but is limited in its scope.

We have created some packages of commonly combined service elements to suit all tastes and budgets. Alternatively, you might choose our bespoke service.

Either way, using our estimator (see overleaf) can help put your mind at ease providing an estimate of the overall cost, not just of our charges but those of typical third party providers too.

The Small Print

- + Removals within an approx. radius of 10 miles of our office.
- ++ Where there are an extremely large number of tributes to carry, or large tributes, additional transport might be required as additional cost, presently £320 each floral hearse.
- +++ Up to three hours' use (pick up to drop off); time over charged at £50 per hours or pro rata.
- For the Purely Cremation package, if not scattered where cremated, the cremated remains will be collected and held for collection within 60 days or, at additional cost, sent to you. Cremated remains uncollected after 60 days will be returned to the crematorium for scattering in their garden of remembrance.
- For the Purely Cremation package options we ask for payment in full at the time of order.
- For all other packages we require the greater or 50% of the total cost or all 3rd party charges at time of order.
- Where families wish to provide their own coffin a £220 handling surcharge will be added to all accounts.
- For pre-paid funeral plans there will be an administration fee of £150 per plan, payable to Welham Jones.
